

Table Two

A festive Thanksgiving dinner table is set with a red tablecloth. In the center is a large roasted turkey on a white platter, topped with a mound of stuffing. The turkey is surrounded by fresh green apples, a small pumpkin, and autumn leaves. To the left, a basket of pumpkins and gourds sits on the table. In the background, white plates and glasses are set for guests, and wooden chairs are visible.

Thanksgiving is so called because we are all so thankful that it only comes once a year. ~P. J. O'Rourke
